About

I'm programming and designing all kinds of textile knitwear at Shima Seiki on all systems.

I love my job it looks like my hobby especially when design knitwear or any new textile fabric.

I have tried all kinds of yarns with all gauges on Shima Seiki machines so my experience has been grown from 2002 until now when My father was one of the first programmer at SDS-ONE in Syria.

My career goal is get knowledge for every newest about textile world especially wholegarment machines as I am ready to learn fastly with pleasure of any new kinds of textile.
