Healthy Appetites | Jun 2008 - Jun 2010

Job Title: Catering Assistant of MS Office programs. I started up In Vitro Gallery in Lincoln in November 2010 and the experience of being self-employed and running a business has been invaluable to me. I gained many skills during this time including curating art exhibitions, hosting successful events, employing effective marketing strategies, developing an online presence through Facebook, Twitter, Flickr, producing newsletters, and more. I am proficient with Adobe Photoshop and have been using it for work, college and university coursework and personal projects since 2004.
