About

Retail Manager with +6 years of experience in the clothing and accessories industry. At the moment I'm managing 3 locations in London for Rails.

I'm a dynamic and enthusiastic individual with a lot of passion for people management, training, and business-driven. With a proven record of store management and business growth while delivering high standards. Good communication skills, coach, and promoter of personal and team development. Detail-oriented and with a personal sense of style.
