About

I am a Head Designer with over 15 years of industry experience. Working in particular within Luxury Streetwear, notably at Aries where I was integral to building it into a cult brand. I have a refined eye for product and graphics as well as being skilled in team management, merchandising, product strategy. My experience is across multiple categories, in particular; jersey cut & sew, denim, flou & soft wovens, knitwear, accessories and woven and leather bags

Experience

Senior Womenswear Designer

KENZO | Jan 2020 - Jan 2023

My brief has been to balance a sense of irreverence and subcultural edge whilst meeting the commercial needs of Merchandising. Fully responsible for Design and Conception of -Women's Jersey, I was promoted to design across Soft Wovens after my first months in the role, now comprising:

- Research 2D and 3D to identify new trends, fabrics and silhouettes to creatively drive the teams and to challenge and inspire the artistic director
- Building cohesive seasonal stories across Jersey and Flou
- Sketching of silhouettes and figure illustrations as well as technical flat drawings
- Managing fittings and following prototype development
- Communication with commercial teams to track performance of the collections

Design Consultant

Alexander McQueen | Jul 2019 - Oct 2019

I joined Alexander McQueen to be involved in the forthcoming MCQ Alexander McQueen rebrand. I hoped to utilise my skills in and understanding of Streetwear and graphics I developed in growing the Aries brand- a similar project but with fewer resources. As part of the new MCQ Collective my responsibilities included: $ Research into "Gen Z" target market to define a relevant brand identity $ Research and development of sustainable practices in the design department $ Design and development of capsule ranges $ Responsible for an overhaul of Women's carryover finishing and shapes $ 3D draping and experimentation work to create new shapes $ Construction knowledge to create tech packs and handover to product developers $ Managing Assistant Designers' workflow, giving guidance/feedback

Head of Design

Aries Arise | Jan 2014 - Jul 2019

I was instrumental in growing Aries into a cult brand with sales growth, various successful collaborations and a nomination for Womenswear at the British Fashion Awards. Working at a high level of responsibility for this independent luxury brand has given me broad experience including:

- $ Managing and leading a team of up to 6 direct reports; Designers, Graphic Designers, Interns and Production. Reporting directly to Creative Director.
- $ Hiring and training interns and junior designers, who either make up the current design team or have gone onto other employment in the industry.
- $ Organisation and design across all categories (Wovens, Jersey, Denim, Accessories etc) with the Design team and Creative Director
- $ Range planning in collaboration with Sales Team, as well as devising seasonal colour palette
- $ Costing garments with Product Development and Commercial teams
- $ Experimentation with textiles, cut, deconstruction and draping, 2D and 3D research
- $ Creative problem solving to industrialise atelier techniques and for production
- $ Sourcing
