About

Ebenezer gained experience working under Norton & Sons Tailors as an apprentice before branching out to do personal styling. He possesses great instinct and a keen eye, and prefers helping real people achieve their style and dreams working on numerous weddings, video shoots and personal profiles combining the styling, designing & personal shopping experience. Ebenezer will Transcribe your personality and best features into a look you love. His main principal is to help you look and feel fabulous in your own shape.

In addition to a bespoke and luxury fashion expertise, Ebenezer has taken on numerous social creative management projects. Through these projects, he realized the abundance of similarities between creative managing and fashion styling. He understands the importance of a well-decorated and functional online image. As a result, he has expanded his offerings to provide comprehensive personal profile management, and organizing expertise. Whether you need help building your overall image, or organizing your cabinets and closets, Ebenezer is available to consult on any project, however Great or Minuscule.
