About

I am an experienced and diligent fashion industry professional, specially skilled in design & product development and production management.

I pride myself on my can do attitude and high standard of work within a team environment.

After 6+ years working in numerous roles across the industry in Australia and London, I have acquired skills in; garment, accessories & footwear design & construction, pattern making, tailoring, denim wear and knitwear.

I am passionate about ethically conscious & sustainable design and ensure I am continually educating myself to find better solutions.

My ambition is to diversify the Fashion industry and I dedicate my time to creating safe & supported spaces for underrepresented people.
