About

Fashion Director and Product Manager with over 20 years of experience in creating and developing collections for Women, Men, and Teenagers in both Italian and foreign companies. In my work, I offer comprehensive consultancy, ranging from trend scouting to collection development, with targeted inputs on fabrics, accessories, and the creation of personalized digital or hand-painted prints. Alongside my core competencies, I have also gained substantial expertise in materials and accessories research, always maintaining a focus on merchandising and commercial positioning, with a special focus on pricing. I have successfully worked on Chinese Ready-to-Wear collections, providing consultancy services that honed my flexibility and understanding of different cultural and market logics. Key competencies: Styling Direction | Women, Men, and Teenager Collection Development | Product Management | Fashion Design | Fabric, Material, and Accessory Research and Selection | Merchandising | Pricing | Market Positioning | Trend Hunting | Budget Management | Multi-cultural Approach | Team Management
