About

Artistic director and fashion designer based in Paris, I have been working in ready-to-wear and luxury goods for 11 years, both as a designer, artistic director and collection coordinator. Varied experiences that allow me to be extremely adaptable to the different needs and budgets of my clients.

Founder of the sustainable luxury brand DIANE Paris since 2019, I now share my time between this activity and freelance services for different fashion houses.

Happy and poetical sustainable luxury brand, DIANE Paris offers a colourful, delicate and bold universe, playing with the codes of an assumed femininity. DIANE Paris imagines unique clothes ethically designed in noble materials, respectful of people and the environment, that reveal the personality of the women who wear it, and make them stand out. Statement pieces crafted to last and designed to make heads turn.
