● RAW MATERIAL PURCHASING DEPARTMENT DIRECTOR

Marzotto Spa | Jan 2000 - Jan 2004

An Italian textile manufacturer involved in wool textile production, fashion, and non-women products, serving consumers in Europe and Asia. Company is headquartered in Valdagno (VI) with regional offices in Europe and China and manufacturing plants in Italy, Czech Republic, Egypt, and Lithuania. RAW MATERIAL PURCHASING DEPARTMENT DIRECTOR Directed six team members while administering a €45M budget for the purchasing of raw materials. Oversaw R&D, procurement, quality control, and production functions, working in Australia and New Zealand with wool brokers and suppliers also. Led development of new types of raw materials, increasing quality for new and existing products. CHANGE MANAGEMENT: Revamped raw material (wool) supply chain to expand from a low-quality mass market offering to a medium and luxury-market offering. Turned around a €9M loss to €4M in profitability within one year.

- Implemented market/business strategy to optimize cost and increase material quality.
- Provided leadership transforming the organization and management of a combing mill in Italy and spinning mill in Czech Republic; enhanced operational efficiencies and throughput.
- Transformed industrial and technology organization to enhance procurement of new raw materials; oversaw employee training on new features and methodologies. QUALITY ASSURANCE & CUSTOMER SATISFACTION: Headed an industrial reorganization of the mills to reverse low quality and underperforming results, creating a high quality and productive operation.
- Set the benchmark in best practices among competition, enhancing both equipment and processes.
- Led improvements in plant management while coding maintenance of machinery to prevent downtime.
- Oversaw training and coaching of employees to cultivate a customer-focused culture, improving customer satisfaction index from 20% to 80% while lifting productivity by 20%.
