About

Aspiring media/content producer. Former acting day-to-day management of Beyond Involve's new "Sweet Charity" project. Main roles involve producing content for and keeping the social media accounts up to date, finding new avenues to explore and applying for funding. Also responsible for developing their new e-commerce platform, despite having no training or experience in doing so. Bachelors in physics, with the aim to move more into the creative industry, but am open to other roles. Would be interested in learning more about software development and programming

Experience

● Project Assist

Beyond Involve | Jul 2022 - Jan 2023

Part of a team tasked with establishing Sweet-Charity, a division responsible for recycling and repurposing offcuts and wasted textiles into sellable goods to fund opportunities for underrepresented groups and graduates.

My primary role was to produce content for and manage the various social media accounts. This ranged from long format informational and education videos to short format, attention-grabbing and snappy clips. Responsible for camera work, directing, editing and script writing. I was also responsible for the development of their new e-commerce platform. I used Odoo to build the site, photographed the products and assigned them their individual product ID.

● Picker

Iceland Foods | Jan 2021 - Jul 2022

Responsible for organising home deliveries.

- Requires efficient work and effective teamwork skills
- Often requires dealing with incorrect stock numbers, missing stock or date issues.
