About

As a writer, I'm driven by my desire to learn. I love taking on new projects, conducting research, and creating inspiring, effective copy. That's true whether I'm ghostwriting for an Emmy award-winning CEO, blogging for a creative tech business, or creating a question and-answer blog that amassed 2,500+ followers in two months. For your next website, blog, or project, let me craft compelling copy for you. You can reach me at gabrielle.miller.h@gmail.com.
