About

I have been working in marketing for nearly ten years with particular experience in the beauty industry and more recently in conservation. I have a wide understanding of marketing practices with special focus on creative marketing. My broad marketing background has allowed me to work across campaign launches, copywriting, PR, visual merchandising, content creation, activation and prop styling. Beautiful, considered and consistent content has always been a red thread through all of my work.

I particularly love copywriting and designing inspiring spaces.

I offer a variety of services including:

- Brand strategy and alignment
- Copywriting and editing
- Content creation (including visuals)
- Social media support
- Email support
- Website support
- PR support - outreach, influencer relationship building and press releases
- Prop styling, shoot and set support (pre-production)
- Event management
