About

Accomplished international Product Manager, with 10 years of experience in the ready-to-wear retail industry. Structured and business driven professional with strong interpersonal and team skills. I gained a distinct aesthetic understanding for fashion on my journey working in the industry, together with high skills in retail business strategy optimization, planning and execution. I have developed a strong sense of analysis and decision making thanks to both a scientific background and the responsibility as Senior Product Manager with the industry leader company.
