About

I have a diverse background spanning various industries, which has created strong adaptability and has allowed me to develop a holistic and unique approach to client management. Whether it be through media buying, account management or personal styling - I am passionate about truly connecting with my clients and creating an enjoyable experience for them throughout their journey. I thrive in dynamic environments where I am client facing and able to build and grow long-term relationships. I am enthusiastic, creative and have a keen eye for the small details which I believe can elevate a client's experience from great to exceptional.
